

A Doll's House - Persuasive Essay

At the end of A Doll's House Nora and Torvald discuss Nora's duties and her place in their house hold and society. After hearing both Torvald's and Nora's side of the argument explain if you think it was good or bad for Nora to leave her family at the end of the play. You should cite at least 3 examples from the play in order to support your point. Make sure that you address one point from the opposing point of view. Your Final Draft should follow MLA format and should be at least 2 pages typed.

Your essay should include the following:

- A clear thesis statement that states your point.
- Logical cited evidence from the play that is specific and that proves your point.
- Address at least one idea of the opposing point of view.
- A pre-write, revised rough draft, and typed final draft in MLA format.

Due Dates:

Pre-write –

Outline –

Rough Draft –

Final Draft –

A Doll's House - Persuasive Essay

At the end of A Doll's House Nora and Torvald discuss Nora's duties and her place in their house hold and society. After hearing both Torvald's and Nora's side of the argument explain if you think it was good or bad for Nora to leave her family at the end of the play. You should cite at least 3 examples from the play in order to support your point. Make sure that you address one point from the opposing point of view. Your Final Draft should follow MLA format and should be at least 2 pages typed.

Your essay should include the following:

- A clear thesis statement that states your point.
- Logical cited evidence from the play that is specific and that proves your point.
- Address at least one idea of the opposing point of view.
- A pre-write, revised rough draft, and typed final draft in MLA format.

Due Dates:

Pre-write –

Outline –

Rough Draft –

Final Draft –