

CARPE DIEM

- The Nerve Agents

I've spent 27 years chasing dream after dream,
Some attained, some remain so I'll keep on in that direction.
Don't try to hold me back, or route me to another track,
These dreams are what I live for, not slaving to retire.

SEIZE THE DAY!!!

Paychecks are your bliss, to me that's sick and twisted.
Your thoughts are of regret, all day long you are depressed.
My drive in life comes from the fear of mediocrity,
Not slaving with the herd, running blind and aimless.

SEIZE THE DAY!!!
