

Name: _____.

Period: _____.

50

Freedom to Breathe & The Prison Cell

Pages 1261 – 1267

Sensory details are words and phrases that appeal to readers' senses of sight, smell, hearing, taste, or touch. Look for sensory details in the following poems.

Freedom to Breathe – page 1262

4pts

1. Identify at least 2 sensory details in the first 2 paragraphs that help the reader imagine the setting.

1 pnt

2. Where is the speaker?

2pts

3. What phrases does the speaker use to recreate what he hears in the garden.

2 pts

4. How has imprisonment affected the speaker?

4pts

5. What is the speaker's message about freedom?

5pts

6. How strong is the speaker's spirit? Use examples from the selection to support your answer.

Name: _____.

Period: _____.

The Prison Cell – pages 1266 - 1267

1 pnt

7. Where is the speaker?

2pnts

8. Who is the speaker talking to in the poem?

2 pnts

9. What is the speaker's attitude in the poem?

2pnts

10. How has imprisonment affected the speaker?

4pnts

11. What is the speaker's message about freedom?

5pnts

12. How strong is the speaker's spirit? Use examples from the selection to support your answer.

16
points

13. On a separate piece of paper write a 3 paragraph essay comparing and contrasting the speakers and their messages about freedom. Which speaker do you think is stronger in spirit? Use the answers to the questions above to help you write your essay.